Turley Wine Cellars

Larry Turley and his winemaker Ehren Jordan continue to produce a fantastic range of wines from some of California's oldest, head pruned, dry farmed Zinfandel vineyards. They have managed to persuade the owners of some of California's finest, old vine Zinfandel vineyards to let them take total control of viticulture; farming totally organically, reducing yields to extremely low levels and picking late.

Winemaking is gentle (Zinfandel behaves in a similar way to Pinot Noir in the winery and is very prone to oxidation) and totally unmanipulated. The wines are matured for 14-16 months in 75% French, 25% American oak barrels (25% new) and bottled unfiltered and unfiltered.

2007 has produced some superb Zinfandels. The growing season was moderate and textbook and the resulting wines are fleshy, seamless, intensely flavoured and have ripe, suave tannins. The wines are due December 2009. Please note the vineyard wines will be offered probably early in 2010. Wines available under bond by 12 or 6, or as a mixed case.

Welcome to our Christmas 2009 selection; as ever, this is an expanded selection and we have put together some excellent offerings, including some brand new cases this year. We do not include bin ends or off vintage wines - all our wines have been tried and tested and a huge amount of effort goes into these offerings. NOTE: for corporate offers, please be aware that we can mail these cases all around the UK, and most of Europe (extra charges) - we can also include your personalised message on your own letter head/ compliment slips. The cases are also completely flexible - we can quote you on bespoke cases or you can amend the cases to your preference, if for example you would rather not have the sparkling or Port but wish to have an extra white or red etc. If you are ordering on-line, then please include any requests for changes in the comments section. Delivery to mainland UK is £9 per case and £5 per subsequent case. Occasionally, we do have to substitute a wine but it will always be of at least the same value and similar in style. Please advise if this is NOT acceptable.

Domaine Baptiste Boutes Minervois 2006 - France A delicious but bruising effort from this former shop favourite. Produced by the Chateau de Negly guys, It's inky black/purple in the glass and has pronounced aromas of black cherry, black olive and roasted meats. The palate is full and laden with more black cherry and liquorice. Despite all this power I think it's still very well balanced and the richness of flavour is not out of step with the overall feel of the wine. Bring on the game!. Includes 1 bottle.	£83.50	£7.75

Domaine Daniel & Denis Alary Cotes du Rhone 'Gerbaude' 2007 - France The inexpensive 2007 Cotes du Rhone La Gerbaude is another terrific bargain from this vintage. Apparently this is the estate's declassified wine from their home village of Cairanne, yet this blend of 85% Grenache and 15% old vine Carignan is outstanding. Notes of black cherries, garrigue, loamy soil, spice, and new saddle leather emerge from this richly fruity, medium-bodied, elegant, complex red. It is ideal for drinking over the next 2-3 years. 90 points Robert Parker. Includes 1 bottle.	£100.00	£9.29
Magpie Estate 'The Black Sock' Mourvedre 2006 - Australia This wine has become a real favourite which is great as both myself and Rolf are great Mourvedre/Mataro fans. Slightly different blend this year. No Grenache and around 8% Shiraz, so our most Mourvedre dominated release yet. Aged for the first 10 months in around 10% new oak. We then looked at the wine in January 2007 and felt a little newer oak would help so 40% went into 1 year old French oak puncheons and 40% in 2 year old American oak puncheons, the rest into 2 year old oak barrels. Shiraz was blended at the end to give it some weight and add a little complexity. Deep in colour and quite savoury on the nose. Black fruits with meat, liquorice, and dried herbs. On the palate it follows a similar path. Juicy black fruits with some red berry lifted characters. Meat, spice and black pepper, liquorice and creamy oak, with good acidity. It's long, rich and quite creamy. Round and deep and really appealing. Drink over the next 5-8 years. "The 2006 Black Sock Mourvedre is purple-colored with a nose of wood smoke, mineral, forest floor, blueberry, and Asian spices. Already revealing some complexity, this sweet, savory effort has a firm finish and the structure to evolve for 3-5 years. It will be in its prime from 2012 to 2022" 91 points Jay Miller Robert Parkers Wine Advocate Feb 2009. Includes 1 bottle.	£140.00	£12.99

Magpie Estate 'The Schnell' Shiraz-Grenache 2007 - Australia The latest Schnell has just arrived. From the difficult and patchy 2007 vintage. Frost, hail, heat, drought all had a part in making this a hard vintage in the Barossa. We decided early on not to make any of our premium wines so all those best barrels have blended into our regular range. The fruit for this wine came from 9 different growers. 60% Shiraz 40% Grenache. Aged mostly in older and shaven oak barrels. This is a full flavoured yet easy drinking wine. Berry fruits, spice, pepper and a touch of oak on an inviting nose. It's bright and juicy on the palate with lovely red and black fruits, a hint of plum and creamy oak. Long, juicy and spicy. Drink now and over the next 3-5 years. Includes 1 bottle.	£105.00	£9.99
Magpie Estate 'The Call Bag' Mourvedre-Grenache 2006 - Australia A blend of 56% Mourvedre and 44% Grenache. From 5 different growers. We call this our 'Estate Wine' first made in 1993. Aged in nearly all older oak. Maybe 10% new oak. We use 500 litre puncheons as well as our usual 300 litre hogsheads. Rich plum and black cherry on the nose with cinnamon and clove spice, a touch of pepper too. It's rich and full with warm spicy fruit. Liqueurice, oak and spice. It's already drinking well, and it is very much in keeping with the style. For drinking now and over the next 5 years. Very versatile food wine too. "The 2006 Call Bag is a blend of 56% Mourvedre and 44% Grenache. It has an enticing perfume of underbrush, mineral, wild cherry, and blackberry leading to a glossy, ripe, intensely flavored wine with enough structure to evolve for 2-3 years. Drink this intriguing blend from 2010 to 2018" 91 points Jay Miller Robert Parkers Wine Advocate Feb 2009. Includes 1 bottle.	£129.00	£11.99
Magpie Estate 'The Black Sock' Mourvedre 2006 - Australia This wine has become a real favourite which is great as both myself and Rolf are great Mourvedre/Mataro fans. Slightly different blend this year. No Grenache and around 8% Shiraz, so our most Mourvedre dominated release yet. Aged for the first 10 months in around 10% new oak. We then looked at the wine in January 2007 and felt a little newer oak would help so 40% went into 1 year old French oak puncheons and 40% in 2 year old American oak puncheons, the rest into 2 year old oak barrels. Shiraz was blended at the end to give it some weight and add a little complexity. Deep in colour and quite savoury on the nose. Black fruits with meat, liquorice, and dried herbs. On the palate it follows a similar path. Juicy black fruits with some red berry lifted characters. Meat, spice and black pepper, liquorice and creamy oak, with good acidity. It's long, rich and quite creamy. Round and deep and really appealing. Drink over the next 5-8 years. "The 2006 Black Sock Mourvedre is purple-colored with a nose of wood smoke, mineral, forest floor, blueberry, and Asian spices. Already revealing some complexity, this sweet, savory effort has a firm finish and the structure to evolve for 3-5 years. It will be in its prime from 2012 to 2022" 91 points Jay Miller Robert Parkers Wine Advocate Feb 2009. Includes 1 bottle.	£140.00	£12.99

Magpie Estate 'The Fakir' Grenache 2007 - Australia The Fakir 2007 looks to be another strong release of this wine, in no small part down to the fact that yet again we made no Gomersal - our premium Grenache, we blended the vast majority into this wine which just elevates this wine so much. So 95% Grenache 5% Shiraz. Nearly half the wine is the Gomersal vineyard Grenache, old vines and aged in new and one year old French oak puncheons. Despite not displaying the finesse to make a Gomersal, this was still fine juice. Blended with Grenache from three other growers, and as ever aged in oak for 22 months. The Gomersal and that high quality French oak gives the wine a lovely meaty, spicy character. Beautifully perfumed with black and red cherry with plum. Vanilla, mocha, meat and cinnamon spice too. It's medium bodied and already very accessible. Juicy and creamy with bright plum, black cherry and red cherry fruit. Lots of spice with mocha and chocolate. It's a touch brighter and higher toned than the 2006 and really lovely now, i would opt for drinking this over the next 5 years. Includes 1 bottle.	£140.00	£12.99
Magpie Estate 'The Wit and Shanker' Cabernet Sauvignon 2006 - Australia The third release of our Barossa Cabernet. Coming from Ivan Doecke's vineyard. Having seen the fruit for a few years now we are more confident in our oaking. Just 3 barrels made. 133 case production. Aged in 50% new French oak, and 50% in 1 and 2 year old oak. Dense cassis and blackcurrant on the nose. Sweet oak too. It's full of sweet black berry fruit. Nice oak and a hint of cedar and herb too. It's quite a brooding dense Cabernet and over the course of a couple of hours it really opens up. Ripe with good acidity and soft tannins, it will however improve over the next 3-5 years and may well drink for 10 years. Includes 1 bottle.	£140.00	£12.99
Magpie Estate 'The Sack' Shiraz 2006 - Australia As ever this comes from a number of growers around the Barossa with the premium Northern Barossa regions like Ebenezer being a major part of the blend. Around 31% of the wine is aged in new oak, of this c80% is American and c20% is French, 31 % in one year old oak, 60% American, 40% French, the balance is aged in older and shaven oak for 22 months. This year it's 100% Shiraz we felt the wine had enough complexity without the need to add any Grenache. On the nose it displays black cherry, plum and dried herbs. A touch of meat and spice too. Rich and full flavoured on the palate. Already round and balanced with a lovely savoury meatiness allied to rich black cherry, plum and spice. Black pepper and oak on a long finish, it is quite an elegant Shiraz and really quite juicy. It's a very worth follow up to the 2005. Although made to be immediately appealing I think this wine will improve further and cellar until 2015 at least. 1188 cases produced. "The 2006 The Sack Shiraz is a glass-coating opaque purple. It exhibits an aromatic array of violets, smoke, game, blueberry, and blackberry liqueur. Smooth textured, dense, and rich, this nicely layered effort will evolve for 2-3 years and drink well from 2010 to 2018" 91 points Jay Miller Robert Parker's Wine Advocate Feb 2009. Includes 1 bottle.	£150.00	£13.99

"New Wave Spanish Wine Awards 2009" was organised by The Spanish Institute for Foreign Trade (ICEX) in collaboration with the specialist trade publication Off Licence News for the fifth year running. Tim Atkin MW again chaired a panel of 17 world class wine experts to judge and select 100 outstanding Spanish wines. Over 1,000 were entered and in the end 110 wines including 7 sherries were announced in July. I attended a tasting of all the winning wines later in July and was most impressed. Like last year we are offering a mixed case of 12 winners, at a special mixed case price and all the wines can be purchased individually with a 10% discount. We also have several other winners that are available to buy by the case at 10% off, or of course mix your own case of 12 from the award winners and if ordered online we will manually deduct 10% just mention New Wave Spain or similar I really like these kind of competitions and are a great way for me as a buyer to be introduced to lots new and exciting wines. Spain is such an exciting country at present for wine and this is a great way to taste some of the best Spain has to offer, and not a Chardonnay or Sauvignon Blanc amongst them !!

Mixed Case No. 16 'International Wine Challenge Trophy Winners'

So many good wines this year, and some great value wines. I hear some sceptical talk about the IWC. It is as well run as these big competitions can be. Not every wine that gets all the way through is that good, but in every competition/review there are always a few wines that raise eyebrows. The great thing about the IWC is the breadth of wines that win awards, and I think it's a fantastic way to try new wines. No doubt about it, as a buyer I get drawn to these things, but we will taste ourselves and make our own mind up. So we are just focusing on the crème de la crème, the wines that make it all the way through to win a trophy. Less than 1% of the total entry. Here are some fabulous wines, all available by the case at a 10% discount or as this tremendous tasting case, also including a 10% discount

No small task trying to narrow down to just 2 whites and 2 reds each from thousands we have tasted! It has turned out to be a very eclectic case with wines from some 8 different countries! Some really interesting and high quality wines here.

It's crisp with good weight, pear drop, honeyed citrus, lime and white peach with tangy acidity on the finish. It's a tangy Albarino with lovely fruit and great purity. Very tasty. JJCH Includes 1 bottle.	£118.70	£10.99
Fromm Vineyards 'La Strada' Sauvignon Blanc 2008 - New Zealand This is a very classy bottle, quite elegant and restrained yet not lacking depth at all; plenty of minerals and texture yet in quite a subtle fashion. An assassin of a wine really, as the quality and depth sneak up on you - one moment you're thinking, ok not bad, and then suddenly, wow this is good. Really characterful Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc. DLY. Includes 1 bottle.	£146.00	£13.25

Frantz Saumon Montlouis 'Minerale +' 2008 - France A very interesting wine, very minimalist packaging; off-dry style with tangy orange blossom, nectarine and hints of lemon. A little residual sugar is evident on the delicious palate which also finishes quite clean with some evident minerals.all-round one of the most interesting whites of the year for me DLY. Includes 1 bottle.	£151.00	£14.29
Bodegas Naia 'Naiades' Rueda 2006 - Spain A New Wave Spanish Wine Award 2009 Trophy Winner An extraordinary wine produced from 8 small plots of ancient, mainly pre-phylloxera vines (many well over 100 years old). Fermentation and ageing in new French oak for 8 months results in a seamless and vibrant mix. Rich and nutty on the nose, and likewise on the palate really honeyed and creamy with lots of tangy stone and citrus fruits. Incredible length and a really interesting top quality white wine. NCY. Includes 1 bottle.	£240.00	£20.49
Domaine de la Negly 'Josephine' Vin de Pays de L'Herault 2007 - France A cracking inexpensive wine; apparently made from old vine Carignan.It's a delicious mid weight crunchy,vibrant red. Red and black fruits on an appealing juicy nose. It's got bags of fruit, vibrant but quite a soft style, with very round tannins, morello cherry and subtle spice. It's a lovely uncomplicated juicy red. Really appealing. JJCH. Includes 1 bottle.	£68.00	£6.45
Bodegas y Vinedos O.Fournier 'Urban Uco' Tempranillo 2008 - Argentina really attractive Argentinian red made from Tempranillo which obviously works well in this climate. From vineyards 1100 metres above sea level, aged in French oak for 3 months. Attractive plum and cherry fruits. Oak and spice too, it's dense and juicy with vibrant black fruits and spice, oak is subtle giving a gently creamy finish. It's a vibrant flavour packed red of real quality. NCY. Includes 1 bottle.	£86.00	£7.95
Innocent Bystander Pinot Noir 2008 - Australia A really good Pinot from the excellent Innocent Bystander. From various Yarra Valley vineyards. Lovely vibrant nose with mulberry, raspberry, plum and spice. It's quite a rich Pinot on the palate, again red and black berry fruits to the fore, with spice and oak. Juicy acidity keeps it fresh and lively, and a light chill is no problem. It's a top value wine too. JJCH. Includes 1 bottle.	£110.00	£9.99
Fattoria Le Pupille Morellino di Scansano 2008 - Italy Deep ruby red in colour with purple tints, the nose displays aromas of ripe blackberry and cherry with Mediterranean herbs. On the palate it is fresh and youthful, with ripe, full fruit and lovely rounded tannins giving it a firm structure and good balance. DLY. Includes 1 bottle.	£143.00	£13.99
Alvaro Palacios 'Camins del Priorat' Priorat 2007 - Spain A new entry level Priorat from the great Alvaro Palacios winery. It's a real winner 50% Samsó (Carignan) 40% Garnacha 10% Cabernet Sauvignon and Syrah. Vines are 10-50 years old, all destemmed aged in 100% French oak for 8 months, bottled unfiltered. Red berry fruits, meat, spice, pepper and oak on the nose. It's a medium bodied Priorat, with lovely dense plum and red berry fruit, lots of pepper and spice and a real juicy core, oak is integrated and crucially the tannins are ripe making it very approachable now. It's got a lovely meaty savoury character along with the berry fruits. It's a delicious approachable style with fabulous fruit. A real winner for drinking over the next 3-5 years, though really enjoyable now. A bargain compared to the top Palacios Priorat's. DLY. Includes 1 bottle.	£162.00	£14.99
Allegrini 'La Grola' 2006 - Italy Fabulous IGT from Veneto by Allegrini. 80% Corvina, 20% Syrah. An easy choice as one of my wines of the year, it's sheer quality blew me away. Has a lovely ripe, meaty brooding nose with black cherry, plum and hints of chocolate. The same flavours on a rich warming palate, the tannins are soft making it hugely inviting, with good acidity too. Rich and plush and full of dense black cherry, plum and meaty flavours with chocolate and integrated oak. Hugely classy, lovely now or drink over the next 7 years or so. NCY. Includes 1 bottle.	£194.00	£17.99

2006
This is looking to be a very attractive white Burgundy vintage and they are drinking well now - plumper and softer than the 2005's.

Bodegas Luis Canas

A great winery where all releases are excellent - modern style but unquestionably Rioja! The range is boosted by the exemplary 2001 Gran Reserva.

Torres Priorat

Both excellent quality and award-winning. Brooding and dense, these are great winter reds.
