Louis Jadot - We always have some excellent pretty mature offerings and whilst these are getting harder to procure at reasonable prices, they still offer excellent value. The new Volnay Santenots 2009 is lovely and the Beaune Boucherottes 2010 is also drinking well. We can acquire a very large range so if you have a particular Jadot in mind - do ask.

Domaine Lafage are making some delicious wines. The old vine Carigann 'Cayrol' is delicious, quite perfumed and spicy. The two fortified wines are great. The Maury Grenat a great alternative to port. The Rivesaltes Ambre is nutty rich and complex.

Great to have Horst Sauer from the Franken region back in our portfolio. We will be adding more wines, this is however sensational. A spatlese trocken in style, rich with lots of extract and also terrific acidity and minerality.

Brezza is slightly under the radar, yet the wines are proving hugely popular and our allocation gets ever smaller. The Barolo is classic and quite forward. The Freisa a lesser know grape variety that has a lovely perfume. The Nebbiolo is maybe the best of them all. Juicy and spicy with some classic dried herb.

San Felice are making some fabulous wines, the Chianti Classico has had some amazing reviews and is a genuine bargain. The Campogiovanni Brunello is delicious too, again had excellent press and like several 2013's is quite a forward style of Brunello.

Nals Margreid. We are big fans of this excellent co-operative in Alto Adige. Great wines across the board, I love the crunchy, spicy Lagrein of the reds and have a soft spot for the Pinot Bianco in general, the regular 2017 is stunning and the Sirmian richer, more complex and ageworthy.

We have been selling Pieropan's amazing Soave's for over 25 years. Tasting through them recently I was hugely impressed. The Classico is crisp with stone fruits, the Calvarinho extra weight and texture, the La Rocca is knockout, complex, rich, nutty, long.

Some good wines here, the Domaine Tourelles has been hugely popular - winning an IWC Trophy this year, full of berry and bramble fruits with dried herbs and oak. The Massaya wines just keep getting better, exemplified by the fabulous bright, juicy Le Colombier a blend of Grenache, Cinsault and Tempranillo.

Harewood - great wines from this Western Australian winery. Some of the Rieslings are on the bin end offer and are great value. The new Reserve Chardonnay is a nod to the old school being rich and quite oaky but also with really good acidity. The Pinot Noir is a bright, juicy vibrant style. The Reserve Cabernet one of my wines of 2018, should have ordered more. Lovely mature cassis and morello cherry, some cedar too. Fab with roast lamb!

Magpie Estate, not much to add that's not been said before. We have the first Election Shiraz since 2010, it's opulent, classy Barossa Shiraz at its best. The 'Malcolm' 2012 arrived this summer and is the first since 2010, and there will not be another for some time. We have the last and possibly best ever Call Bag, just 2 barrels. On the whites our first ever dry Muscat- The Selfie stick which has been causing quite a buzz.

Yealands are continuing to make lovely sustainable wines, delicious Pinot Noir, but it's the aromatic whites we really like best. The PGR (Pinot Gris, Gewurztraminer, Riesling) is a lovely off-dry white that's great with Asian cuisine.

Sparkling

Vint. Price No.

Please note this is a rather random selection of sparkling wines! Other than Champagne which is a clear and concise listing. Apologies! So for example Clover Hill from Tasmania is in Australia white, one Moscato d'Asti is here, the Vajra is in Italian white etc. However if you go onto the website and in the drop down menu you select SPARKLING, it will bring up all the wines we carry, Champagne, reds, whites etc. !!

Osborne - a famous old house, we have some delicious bargain priced reds, some lovely ports arriving soon and of course their fabulous sherry. The VORS Amontillado-51 (won the sherry trophy at this years Wine of Spain awards- I did judge that category!). The Fino's are awesome the Quinta around 4-5 years of age and the Coquinero 6+ years this gives them more depth and weight.

Finding mature port is getting ever harder, however tasting a range of vintage ports recently was an eye opener, the 2011's are actually really quite drinkable and even some of the just released 2016's are not overly tannic and backward. Colheita's are still the value pick being an aged vintage tawny. Krohn make fabulous ones as do Quinta do Crasto.
